Subject: Expression of Interest to Host the FAI Skydiving World Cup

Dear Mr. Paracuellos,

I am writing to formally express Confederação Brasileira de Paraquedismo's interest in hosting the 2027 FAI World Cup of all disciplines in Brazil. Our organization is committed to promoting air sports and has a proven track record of successfully organizing and hosting events of international stature.

Event Details

- Name of the Event(s): 2027 FAI World Cup all disciplines
- Location: Petrolina, PE
- Proposed Dates: August
- Venue Description: Petrolina, Pernambuco, Brazil, is an ideal location for international events, offering modern facilities, a strategic geographical position, and excellent accessibility. With a warm, dry climate year-round, the city ensures optimal conditions for outdoor activities. Its infrastructure includes the Senador Nilo Coelho International Airport, providing convenient access from major cities, and diverse accommodation options. The wide-open spaces and flat terrain are perfect for air sports, complemented by the stunning São Francisco River landscapes. Known for its vibrant culture, rich gastronomy, and welcoming community, Petrolina provides an unforgettable experience for participants and visitors alike.
- Bid Submission Timeline: We plan to submit a comprehensive bid for your consideration by the next ISC in SAUDI ARABIA JANUARY 2026 . Our team is working diligently to ensure that our proposal meets all FAI requirements and showcases our capacity to deliver an exceptional event.

We are confident that hosting this event in Brazil will not only meet but exceed the expectations of athletes, officials, and spectators alike. It will also serve to further promote the growth and visibility of Skydiving on a global scale.

Please feel free to reach out to me directly at presidente@cab.org.br if you require additional details or have any questions about our intention to host this prestigious event.
